Custodial history: Originally housed in the Church of Ireland Christ Church Cathedral in Waterford

Acquisition note: In 2006 the Christ Church Cathedral Collection went on long-term loan to Waterford Institute of Technology (now SETU) Libraries, who became custodians of the collection. This agreement was facilitated by the Reverend Peter Barrett, Bishop of Cashel and Ossory.

Donations added to the collection: The Christ Church Cathedral collection owes its origin to the generosity of Bishop Charles Este (1696- 1745). The Rev Charles Este served as the Church of Ireland Bishop of Waterford and Lismore from 1740 until his death in 1745, and bequeathed his library to the Mayor and Corporation of Waterford.

Significant bequests and donations from the citizens of Waterford were added to the collection over the years. The Dobbyn Family Collection 1807 built up over at least three generations which includes the prestigious Robert Dobbyn law collection. Henry Alcock (1716-1780) was a major addition to the collection in 1779, consisted of theological and legal manuscripts. The collection also includes donations from Bishop Robert Daly, Rev. Patrick Leo, Francis Jacob and in 1867 the Rev. Robert Bell presented 50 books to the collection before leaving Waterford.

Physical Location of the collection: SETU Luke Wadding Library, Cork Road Campus, Special Collections room LB.30 and LB.13
